

Pray North State Article by Rev. Robert D. Kee, February 2, 2008

Greetings, in Jesus' Name!

This writing is to those who are either knowingly or unwittingly drawing the innocent away from the only Truth that will grant them eternal security with God and save them from the destructive paths of their lives. This writing is a plea for you to cease from preaching the empty promises of self-help, and self-gratification touting self as god. Please return to the Gospel message that God has reconciled you to Himself through the sacrifice of His Son Jesus Christ and stop twisting the requirements of Truth.

For months now I have been cautiously observing your teachings from afar; the teachings that promise your audience the blessings of God on their life while excluding or at best minimizing the only Way to the Father through repentance of sin and faith in Jesus Christ. I have been so grieved by this that I have had to ask the Lord to help me either cast off this weight or identify it. Since then He has placed in my heart a desperate plea to steer fellow believers away from your message. You are entertaining the spirit of anti-Christ and your deception is not only leading the innocent believer away from the true doctrine of faith, but selling the sinner a lifestyle without "Life"; without a knowledge of sin; without the need for repentance; hence no need for a Savior; therefore no Salvation. The message is once again "all about you" and is damning a vast hoard of both willing and innocent participants into a perverted truth of our beloved Gospel that fails to present Christ alone as the ONLY WAY!

I don't say a lot about things that only personal differences, but this is poison my brothers and sisters. Your feel-good doctrine is leading people away from the true doctrine of Christ being the ONLY way to the Father through repentance of our sin and acceptance of His sacrifice. My heart breaks for you and I pray that you will allow the Lord to correct you in this before you are guilty of leading more of the masses away from Jesus! Over the centuries God has used many in the Body of Christ to mightily raise His Word as the standard for everything we do, yet you don't even seem to be sure what that standard is.

My Brother and Sister, your message is positive and gives decent life changing lessons, but it's not directing the individual to recognize they are a sinner and deserve hell. They will think they are good people, yet they are still damned for destruction in eternity. They need to know the Gospel, the "Good News", and they won't recognize it until they realize they are facing "Bad-News". Maybe you are not aware, but it appears that your followers are convinced that they are owed something from God. God owes us nothing! We should bow in awesome fear and reverence to Him, gratefully abandoning our own lives and agendas for the sake of His purposes to be accomplished.

Your message gives "dead" people "purpose". Dead people don't need purpose, they need life! Then when they come to Christ for Life He will give them purpose! The true messengers of God have preached of sin and the need for repentance; they preached that Jesus is the ONLY WAY to the Father. These are not a part of your core teaching. Please Lord open our eyes.

I ask you to consider the dis-continuation of such teaching and let the Holy Spirit bring correction to your doctrinal stance, as I truly believe it will be detrimental to yourself and all who go after your following. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you see through the deception into the error that is so evident. The fruit of your message is creating disciples who are convinced they are safe from any eternal punishment and that God exists for the sole purpose of their success and prosperity. We have one message to all people, "Turn from sin, turn to God, believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved-reconciled back to the Father!" This alone is our Good News!

I pray God's wisdom on us all as we continue to pursue only Him!

God bless,
